Archangel (Samaria, Book 1) ... Sharon Shinn's Samaria books are some of my favorites, even though they're technically "young adult" fiction. Very creative (if somewhat unexplained) world, and she almost always manages a good balance in her characters between "follow your dreams" and "do what is needed of you." This one probably exemplifies ...

It's worth it. Unfortunately, the scale is 1-5, so I can only put 5, although I consider it to be far above that number. Archangel is one of the best books I have ever read. **Sharon Shinn has written many other books, including Jovah's Angel and The Alleluia Files, which are the second two installments in the Samaria Trilogy.
