The images in the book and written taglines are in keeping with the actual "Guess How Much I Love You" book. It comes highly recommended. My sister received quite a few baby books at her baby shower and found they were all too basic or didn't leave enough room for adding comments. This is perfect and totally gender neutral.

Guess How Much I Love You: My Baby Book: McBratney, Sam ...

I have always enjoyed the book Guess How Much I Love You and thus ordered the baby book for our new child. The book is very traditional and although I enjoy the illustrations and the story lines, I was dissapointed with it as a baby book. There is not even a space for any religious ceremonies, like baptism.
