Charley's Web - Joy Fielding

Joy Fielding is a master at writing psychological suspense and family dramas. But "Charley's Web" fell short. Fielding tells the story of Charley Webb, a columnist for a Palm Beach newspaper who typically writes about controversial and provocative topics. She's contacted by a woman on death row for the kidnapping, m.

Charley's Web by Joy Fielding - Goodreads

Jill Rohmer, a convicted child killer with a borderline personality disorder, lures Charlotte Charley Webb, a popular columnist for the Palm Beach Post and single mom, into a web of danger and deceit in this spine-tingler from bestseller Fielding (Heartstopper). When Jill invites Charley to collaborate on the true story of what really happened to the three children she was convicted of murdering, Charley at first thinks it sounds like a great idea.
