God of the Oppressed In an undergraduate Religion class in the mid-1970's, I was introduced to a book entitled God of the Opressed by James Cone. The basic point of the book was not all that new to me: the oppressed have a special place in God's heart.

God of the Oppressed - St. John's Episcopal Church

James Hal Cone was an American theologian, best known for his advocacy of black theology and black liberation theology. His 1969 book Black Theology and Black Power provided a new way to comprehensively define the distinctiveness of theology in the black church. His message was that Black Power, defined as black people asserting the humanity that white supremacy denied, was the gospel in America. Jesus came to liberate the oppressed, advocating the same thing as Black Power. He argued that white
