Heads in Beds by Jacob Tomsky is just about the most horrifying (in a good way) book I've ever read. I had no idea that doing the "crinkly handshake" could get you a better room. Heads in Beds is a memoir by Jacob Tomsky describing his ongoing love hate career in the hotel and hospitality industry. It is hilarious, raunchy, poignant, and entertaining as all hell. Tomsky does a great job of stripping the hotel business bare, showing warts and all, yet made it appealing. No doubt to his self-effacing and blunt attitude.
