How We Do Harm: A Doctor Breaks Ranks About Being Sick in America” by Otis Webb Brawley, M.D. with Paul Goldberg “How We Do Harm” is an excellent expose of America's healthcare system. Chief medical and scientific officer and executive vice president of the American Cancer Society, Dr. Otis Webb Brawley takes the reader on an enlightening journey on how medicine is practiced versus how it should really be done.

How We Do Harm: A Doctor Breaks Ranks About Being Sick in ...

How We Do Harm pulls back the curtain on how medicine is really practiced in America. Brawley tells of doctors who select treatment based on payment they will receive, rather than on demonstrated scientific results; hospitals and pharmaceutical companies that seek out patients to treat even if they are not actually ill (but as long as their insurance will pay); a public primed to swallow the latest pill, no matter the cost; and rising healthcare costs for unnecessary—and often unproven ...
