Leadership Identity: Brand Yourself, Team and Organization

A leader is someone who has no personal identity from their followers' point of view. Their whole existence represents the group, and that makes them the ideal person to play this role. That makes sense, because if they're equal to the group, they can't go against its interests.

Leadership as Social Identity - Exploring your mind

New York Times bestselling author Stedman Graham's Identity Leadership is a very personal and prescriptive guide that is based on his philosophy that a leader can't lead others until he can first lead himself-the more he works on himself -- the more he can give to those around him. To know our purpose in life, we begin with our passions, skills, and talents, and with this book we learn how to channel the best of who we are to achieve success for ourselves and those we lead.
