Maggie Now Betty Smith

In Maggie-Now, Betty Smith writes what she knows and straight from her heart – simple, accessible prose that's lovely and heartbreaking. It was hard to read about Maggie's life without seeing it through the lens of my own choices and experiences. By the end I almost agreed with many reviews that characterized her as a “doormat”.

Betty Smith - Wikipedia

Maggie-Now is a wonderfully detailed book. Betty Smith's writing only got even better with this one! She draws these characters showing not only their charms but their faults, too. I didn't think any book could compare with Tree, but Maggie-Now didn't let me down. I only wish Betty Smith had written many,many more books.
