To be the middle sister Is a blessing and a curse. To one sister, you're the "better"; To the other, you're the "worse". When it comes to being older, You've had gifts enough to give To the younger of your siblings, Who adores the life you live. At the same time, being younger Must have been a challenge too, Growing...

We still manage. But today my middle sister called to chat and BAM! she starts crying because she thought I stopped loving her. Well you know that's wrong but she is missing my Mom so much and things have been going on in both our lives that we haven't been able to do the "sister talking". So this poem has hit the nail on the head.
