Womens Rites Scenes From The Erotic Imagination

The scenes unfold upon a field of deep crimson, a red reminiscent of the rubedo in Western alchemy - the stage of union and erotic enfleshment where the "blood" is brought back into the work. The opening panel depicts the initiate fully clothed in a multi-layered garment, signifying her former status in the world, and symbolizing the layers of self that she will need to shed as she crosses the ...

The controversial scene, and likely the only one many people ever bothered watching, was a close-up oral sex scene in which Sevigny clearly performs fellatio on Gallo. Gallo took a lot of heat for the film, but not so much for the oral sex scene. The movie was so widely panned, his edit ended up cutting a whole 25 minutes off the final cut.

Women — Rite of Passage

Writing under a pseudonym, the wife of a well-known French writer offers a brief but claustrophobic memoir of a few choice sadomasochistic rites enacted in New York and Paris. The ""sacraments"" of this black-gowned mistress are meant to raise this humiliating, occasionally bloody, sexual addiction to the level of erotic art. Posing as a simple voyeur, de Berg makes a foray into New York's ...
